

Test your knowledge on unbiased and objective data

1. Fill in the blank: Bias is a _____ preference in favor of or against a person, group of people, or thing.

1 / 1 point

- ☐ fair or unfair
- ☒ conscious or subconscious
- ☐ standard or substandard
- ☐ sensible or insensible

✓ Correct

Bias is a conscious or subconscious preference in favor of or against a person, group of people, or thing.

2. Which of the following are examples of sampling bias? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

- ☒ An election poll only interviews people with college degrees.

✓ Correct

A survey of students that does not include homeschooled students, an election poll that only interviews people with college degrees, and a clinical study that includes three times more men than women are examples of sampling bias. This is because they are not representative of the population.

- ☒ A clinical study includes three times more men than women.

✓ Correct

A survey of students that does not include homeschooled students, an election poll that only interviews people with college degrees, and a clinical study that includes three times more men than women are examples of sampling bias. This is because they are not representative of the population.

- ☒ A survey of students does not include homeschooled students.

✓ Correct

A survey of students that does not include homeschooled students, an election poll that only interviews people with college degrees, and a clinical study that includes three times more men than women are examples of sampling bias. This is because they are not representative of the population.

- ☐ A teacher gives higher grades to essays written in their own writing style.

3. What is the term for the tendency to search for or interpret information in a way that validates pre-existing beliefs?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ Observer bias
- ☒ Confirmation bias
- ☐ Sampling bias
- ☐ Interpretation bias

✓ Correct

The tendency to search for or interpret information in a way that validates pre-existing beliefs is confirmation bias.

4. Which of the following terms are also ways of describing observer bias? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☒ Research bias

✓ Correct

Observer bias is sometimes referred to as experimenter bias or research bias.

☐ Spectator bias

☐ Perception bias

☒ Experimenter bias

✓ Correct

Observer bias is sometimes referred to as experimenter bias or research bias.