

Test your knowledge on open data

1. Fill in the blank: Openness refers to _____ access, usage, and sharing of data.

1 / 1 point

- ☐ disclosed
- ☒ free
- ☐ limited
- ☐ protected

✓ Correct

Openness refers to free access, usage, and sharing of data.

2. What is the preferred method for open data to be made available?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ A secure password-protected file
- ☐ A print copy that is easily shared by anyone
- ☒ A convenient and modifiable internet download
- ☐ A compressed file format that keeps file size small

✓ Correct

The preferred method for open data to be made available is through a convenient and modifiable internet download.

3. What are the main benefits of open data? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☐ Restricts data access to certain groups of people

☒ Good data is more widely available

✔ Correct

The benefits of open data include making good data more widely available and combining data from different fields of knowledge.

☒ Combines data from different fields of knowledge

✔ Correct

The benefits of open data include making good data more widely available and combining data from different fields of knowledge.

☐ Increases the amount of data available for purchase

4. What are the key aspects of universal participation? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☐ Certain groups of people must share their private data.

☒ Everyone must be able to use, reuse, and redistribute open data.

✔ Correct

The key aspects of universal participation are that everyone must be able to use, reuse, and redistribute open data. Also, no one can place restrictions on data to discriminate against a person or group.

☒ No one can place restrictions on data to discriminate against a person or group.

✔ Correct

The key aspects of universal participation are that everyone must be able to use, reuse, and redistribute open data. Also, no one can place restrictions on data to discriminate against a person or group.

☐ All corporations are allowed to sell open data.